and Foreign Operations including Liaison with CIA has appropriate jurisdiction over the Agency and he had thought the last briefing done by the Director had been excellent although the information they received from General Twining was not consistent. He said there were some maneuvers concerned with having the Chairman of House Foreign Affairs invite the Director but he did not know what this was about. He indicated in the near future he would like to receive another full-scale briefing and stated he was going to speak to the Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Dr. Morgan.

4. Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.) telephoned stating that his Subcommittee on Policy Making Machinery planned to start its hearings within several weeks. He was wondering if the Director could be available on the 18th or 19th to meet with the Subcommittee in executive session to give them a general background run down of the long-term problem faced by the U. S. Jackson specifically mentioned that in effect the Director had touched on some aspects of the things he had in mind in various speeches. Jackson stated he hoped that after the executive session they would be able to make some kind of a release of a portion of the Director's statement. He then requested that I meet with him tomorrow (Tuesday) to discuss this further.

5. Met with Boyd Crawford, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, at his request and for his information I filled him in on my talk with Representative Wayne Hays. He exhibited to me an OCI Handbook on Guatemala of 1956, No. 1255. He inquired if we had a similar document Panama and could it be made available to the Committee before Tuesday. I told him I would look into the matter.

6. Surwine said he had no knowledge of any connection between this individual and the Agency but was merely making the request for the record in the event he should become available through Agency channels at some time in the future.

7. Delivered to Max Lehrer on the staff of the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, three 8 1/2 by 11 copies of the TOP SECRET chart on comparative estimates on the Soviet missile program. Also picked up from the Committee a copy of the Director's testimony on Friday.
